Sree Kanteerava Outdoor Stadium

The stadium was established in 1946 also known as Sampangi Outdoor Stadium, is a multi-purpose stadium in Bangalore, India. It houses a running track, a volleyball court, and two outdoor rock-climbing walls. The stadium is owned by the Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, Government of Karnataka. It is the largest sporting complex in Bangalore.

The central arena of the stadium consists of an eight-lane 400-metre synthetic athletic track, along with synthetic surfaced areas for field events like Shotput, Discuss, Javelin, Hammer throws, long jump, high jump, triple jump, and pole vault. In addition to sporting events, the stadium also hosts walkathons, filmmaking, rallies and exhibitions.

The stadium contains four large arched entrances leading onto the inner field and lower spectator stands. The stadium has eight ramps taking spectators to the upper stands. Thus, in total, 12 gates for spectators serve the stadium.
